- Overall tips for teaching students with significant needs
- A quick look at what you will do each day
- Detailed instructions on how that day's lesson should run

The background of the slide is a collage of various US dollar bills, including $100, $20, and $10 bills, scattered across the entire page. The bills are slightly faded and overlapping, creating a textured, financial-themed background.

This unit covers:

- Reasons people save money
- Ways to save money including different bank accounts
 - Savings account
 - Checking account
 - CD
 - Money Market account
 - Stocks
 - Bonds
- Advantages and disadvantages of each option

People who have money saved, say they feel more secure and have peace of mind. They feel better knowing if there is an emergency, they will be okay.

There are 2 books with this unit.
They use photos and simple text appropriate for older students.

1. Saving for the Future
2. Ways to Save

Finally, you can have money put into or taken out of your account using an electronic transfer. This is very common when you receive a paycheck. Rather than get a physical check from your boss, the money is automatically put into your account through a series of computer messages.

There are 3 sorting activities:

- Benefits of putting money in a bank
- Things to buy now or save for
- Characteristics of each method of saving

Each sorting activity uses pictures. Color coding can be added for students who need more support.

Answer keys included.

Circle the best savings option in each scenario.

1. Jerome has some money he wants to invest. He has saved up $200 mowing lawns this summer. He wants to figure out the best place to save his money so it will grow. He has no real plans for the money this year, but might want to use it for a new mower next summer. Jerome still lives at home, so his parents are there to help with emergencies. What is the best option for Jerome to save his money so it will grow?

2. Sherrie lives on her own in an apartment and has a good job. She wants to put $400 each month into an account where her money will grow. She has a big trip planned in two years with her friends, so she will need the money then, but not before. She has enough in a checking account for emergencies. What is the best option for Sherrie to save her money so it will grow?

There are 10 scenarios where students will determine the best method of saving given a person's financial plans.

Answer keys included.

Who am I cards

- Give each student a set of Who am I cards
- Various options/ways to play, but the goal is to have students hold up the card you are talking about. Sometimes there can be more than one correct answer
- Things you can do:
 - Hold up a vocabulary card
 - Show a page from the book
 - Point to a symbol on the vocabulary board
 - Verbally describe the characteristics of that type of saving.
- Tell a story as though you were visiting the bank or a financial advisor.
 - What are your long term goals?
 - When will you need your money?
 - How much risk are you willing to take?
 - What type of interest do you want?

Saving for the Future

By Christa Joy

This unit also has digital activities. There is a movie version of the book students can listen to read aloud.

Great for review!!

What are some ways people can save money? Place pictures in circle map showing ways people can save money.

The digital activities have students mainly click and drag their answers. There is some typing involved in the set without differentiation.

Perfect for any learning level

Where are some things you could buy now and those you would have to save for?

Sort the items into the correct column. If you are not sure, or think it could be both, place it on the middle line.

The second set of slides is differentiated using color. There is no typing in this set of slides.
