STONE SOUP

LITERACY UNIT

ALSO INCLUDES GOOGLE SLIDES

These literacy units are something I created and started using in my classroom. I had students with significant challenges and most were non-readers. This is a great way to expose all students to some great books.

Soup

- Preparation
 - Print out ingredient labels and affix to ingredients prior to lesson
 - Depending on the learning level of your students you can either pre-cut ingredients, so students are just dumping in what is in the containers, or
 - Allow your students to cut and measure out the correct amount (good for older students especially)
 - Review and address any food allergies
 - Depending on learning style of your students, either print a class copy of the recipe directions or make a copy for each student
 - For students that are visually overwhelmed, cut apart the recipe and mount each step on a separate index card
 - You will need a crock pot,
 - Directions
 - As a class make soup following the recipe

Listen to the book, Stone Soup read aloud

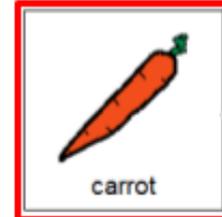

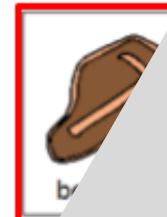

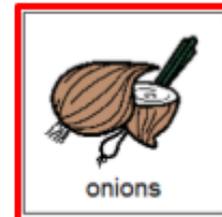

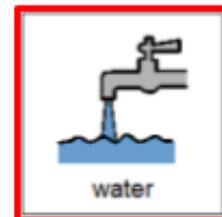

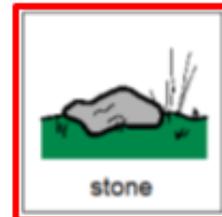

There is a video of the book read aloud. This is a video from YouTube.

Great for independent centers

Place symbols below into circle map showing things put in the soup.

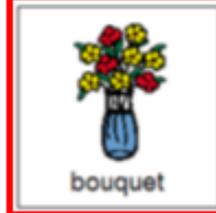

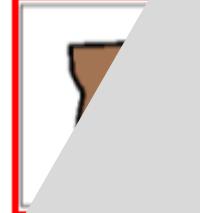

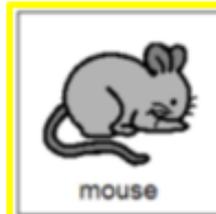

There are digital versions of the activities included. Students click and drag the answers.

Perfect for every learning level

Ou = oo

Ou = ow

Sort the pictures into the correct column depending on the sound "ou" makes in the word. If you are not sure, place it on the middle line.
